Grade 4 · Unit 5: Make Some Noise · Revision Lessons 1 and 2

Teacher: Maysam Jaber · English · Unit 5 revision

Classes: 4A and 4B · 35 minutes each · A1+

Book: Global Readings Level 3, Unit 5 · Reading 1: The Art of Sound (pp. 74–77) · Reading 2: Beethoven's 9th (pp. 80–85)

Tools: the smartboard revision game (built from the teacher's Gemini prompt: pictures, voice and sound) and its printed worksheet; the Magic Book on maysaaaam-rgb.github.io/who-stole-the-treasure for page look-ups.

Revision Lesson 1: Sound Detectives (Foley and sounds)

Outcomes. Students will be able to:

- guess a sound from three clues and name the object that makes it (It sounds like a horse.)
- match a sound effect to a film scene
- decide if a sound is loud or quiet and say it in a sentence
- name Beethoven, orchestra, stage, audience and conductor in a picture

Materials:

- Smartboard game: Missions 1–4 (Sound Detective, Sound Effects, Loud or Quiet?, Where Are They?)
- Magic Book pp. 74–77 (Foley studio) and pp. 80–85 (stage scene) if pupils need the page
- Printed worksheet (one per pupil), mini-whiteboards, LOUD / QUIET cards

Lesson stages (35 minutes):

Min	Stage	Teacher	Pupils
3	Warm-up	Play one mystery sound with the lights low. Ask: "What is it? How do you know?"	Pupils guess in teams.
9	Sound Detective (p. 74–77)	Mission 1: show clue 1, then 2, then 3 ("This sound is made with coconuts. It sounds like a horse."). Fewer clues = more points.	Teams write their guess on a mini-whiteboard and hold it up.
9	Sound Effects	Mission 2: play a silent scene (horse running, swords clashing, a door, a storm, footsteps). Ask: "Which sound do we need?"	A pupil drags the sound onto the scene; the class checks by listening.
6	Loud or Quiet?	Mission 3: play a sound or say its name. Model: "Thunder is loud."	Pupils stand up for LOUD and sit down for QUIET, then say the sentence.
6	Where Are They? (pp. 80–85)	Mission 4: show the concert hall. Ask: "Where is Beethoven? Where is the orchestra?"	Pupils drag the labels; answer: "Beethoven is on the stage."
2	Exit	Ask: "How can you make the sound of a horse?"	Pupils answer: "With coconuts."
35	Total

Teacher notes:

- Keep the Foley objects from Reading 1 on the desk (two cups or coconut halves, paper, keys) for real sound-making if there is time.
- Worksheet pages 1–2 can be homework if the games run long.

Assessment: observation during the team games, the worksheet answers and the exit question; note pupils who need the words again in the next lesson.

Revision Lesson 2: Beethoven's World

Outcomes. Students will be able to:

- sort facts into the world of Foley and the world of Beethoven
- retell Beethoven's story in the right order
- say how Beethoven feels in each part of the story (happy, sad, surprised, worried)

Materials:

- Smartboard game: Missions 5–7 (The Two Doors, Put the Events in Order, How Does He Feel?)
- Magic Book pp. 80–85 (Beethoven's 9th) to check the order of the story
- Printed worksheet, picture cards of the story (6), emotion cards

Lesson stages (35 minutes):

Min	Stage	Teacher	Pupils
3	Warm-up	Play the happy chord and the sad piano. Ask: "Is this music happy or sad?"	Pupils show the emotion with their face.
9	The Two Doors	Mission 5: one card at a time ("makes sounds for films", "wrote music", "uses coconuts", "could not hear").	A pupil drags the card to the Foley door or the Beethoven door and reads it aloud.
9	Put the Events in Order (pp. 80–85)	Mission 6: six shuffled pictures of Beethoven's story. Check the order with the book.	Teams order the pictures; one pupil retells the story with First, Then, Finally.
10	How Does He Feel?	Mission 7: show a story moment with music. Model: "He is sad because he can't hear."	Pupils choose Happy / Sad / Surprised / Worried and say the sentence with because.
4	Exit	Ask: "How does Beethoven feel at the end? Why?"	Pupils answer: "He is happy because the audience claps."

Teacher notes:

- Use the story sentences from the book (pp. 80–85) if they differ from the game cards.

Assessment: observation during the team games, the worksheet answers and the exit question; note pupils who need the words again in the next lesson.
